

It's Amazing How Much More Offshore Energy Could Do for the UNITED STATES

98% of the Eastern Gulf of Mexico planning area is under a congressional leasing moratorium until 2022, putting nearly all of the area's 64.5 million acres off limits to oil and natural gas development. A new report from Quest Offshore Resources shows that granting access to the Eastern Gulf for oil and natural gas development could spur a flurry of investment and economic activity, putting hundreds of thousands of Americans to work, providing billions of dollars for federal and state treasuries, and further strengthening our energy security.

Providing access to the Eastern Gulf's offshore oil and gas resources could deliver by 2035:
